

Capel Nasareth

Dyma erthygl a ymddangosodd yn y Drysorfa yn 1869.

Tal-y-bont, Ceredigion

Y mae y Methodistiaid wedi adeiladu capel newydd yn y lle hwn – yr hwn sydd yn adeilad hardd iawn. Ni fu yno erioed gapel o'r blaen gan y Methodistiaid Calфинаidd. Dechreuwyd y gwasanaeth crefyddol cyntaf yn y capel newydd ar y Sabath cyntaf – y 7fed o Fawrth 1869 ac y mae pob lle i gredu y bydd yno yn fuan eglwys flodeuog a lluosog. Nazareth yw enw'r capel a thystia y rhai ymgynnullant yno fod llawer o ddaioni wedi dod o'r lle yn barod.

Un o'r rhai cyntaf oedd yn gysylliedig a'r trefniadau i sefydlu'r capel oedd John Williams, pannwr canol oed o Dal-y-bont a gynorthwywyd gan Thomas James y Ffatri. Bu John Williams yn casglu enwau'r rhai hynny a fyddai'n barod i ymuno â'r achos newydd. Ef hefyd a sicrhodd safle i'r capel newydd ar dir a berthynai i Syr Pryse Pryse, Gogerddan. Bu fyw hyd 1897 ac ef oedd y codwr canu cyntaf. Yr oedd ei fab yng nghyfraith, John Hughes, yn un o'r blaenoriaid cyntaf ac ef oedd y cyntaf i fyw yn Tŷ Capel.

Rhodddwyd cryn amlygrwydd i un dosbarth yn yr Ysgol Sul yn Nasareth ddechrau'r ganrif hon. Tynnwyd sylw'r cyhoedd at y 'dosbarth Ysgol Sul hynaf yn y byd' yn y papur cenedlaethol, The Sunday Companion. Yr oedd pob un o'r chwech aelod o'r dosbarth dros 80 oed ac un, sef yr athro William Edwards, dros 90. A dywedodd y papur hwnnw amdanynt, 'It is doubtful if there is a more remarkable religious gathering in the world'. Yr oedd

Nazareth Chapel

The following article appeared in the Trysorfa in 1869:

Tal-y-bont Ceredigion

The Methodists have built a new chapel here, – and it is a most beautiful building. There has never been a Calvinistic Methodist chapel here previously. The first religious service was held in the new chapel on March 7th 1869 and there is room to believe that there will be a large thriving chapel there soon. The chapel is called Nazareth and those who congregate there vouch that much benefit has been derived from it already.

One of the earliest to be associated with the work of founding the chapel was the middle aged fuller from Tal-y-bont, John Williams, who was assisted by Thomas James the Factory. John Williams gathered names of those who would be willing to join the new cause. He also secured the site for the new chapel, on land which belonged to Sir Pryse Pryse, Gogerddan. He lived until 1897 and he was the first precentor. His son-in-law, John Hughes, was one of the first deacons and he was the first to live in the chapel house.

1900

There were 71 members. The minister was the Reverend Thomas Jenkins, Brynhyfryd and the deacons were – William Edwards, Bryngryffty; John Hughes (Secretary), Tŷ Capel; J.T. Morgan (Treasurer), Maesnewydd; Thomas Jones, Cwrt Farm; Thomas Hughes, Brynhyfryd; William Evans, Bryngryffty; Richard Phillips, Llwynglas; Richard Davies, Cerrigmawr and W.R. Jones, Bryngwynmawr.

One class in the Sunday School at Nazareth received quite a lot of attention at the beginning of this century. The public's attention was drawn to the 'Oldest Sunday School Class in the World' in the national paper The Sunday Companion. Each of the six members in the class was over 80 years old and the teacher, William Edwards, was over 90. That paper quoted, 'It is doubtful if there is a more remarkable religious gathering in the world.' At the beginning of the century

Stephen Evans, A.R.C.O., Aberystwyth a gorffennodd y cyngerdd gyda chytgan yr Haleliwia o'r Meseia. Adeiladwyd yr organ gan y meistri Conacher a'r Cwmni, Huddersfield. Yr oedd costau'r atgyweriadau a'r gwelliannau dros £1400 a chliriwyd y cyfan ar wahân i £200 cyn ail agor y capel yn 1906. Cynhaliwyd arwerthiant llwyddiannus ar ddechrau 1909 i glirio'r ddyled a chyda'r hwyr cafwyd cyngerdd cysegredig i ddathlu'r achlysur gyda Mr J. Charles McLean o Aberystwyth yn organydd. Yr oedd y canlynol yn cymeryd rhan – Miss Mary Jones, Miss Anne Prosser, Bow St., Mr Tom Jones, Dole, Mr J.M. Jones, Efail Fach a Mr E.W. Evans, Tal-y-bont. Yn y gadair oedd Mr William Rees, Isfryn.

the number attending Sunday School exceeded the chapel membership.

The chapel was rebuilt in 1905–06 and a splendid new pipe organ was installed at a cost of £280. It was first played during a concert held on 6th July 1906. The recital was given by Mr G. Stephens ARCO Aberystwyth and the concert closed with the Hallelujah Chorus from the Messiah. The organ was built by Messers Conacher and Company, Huddersfield. The cost of the repairs and improvements exceeded £1400 and, apart from £200, the whole of this sum was cleared before the chapel was reopened in 1906. A successful sale of work was held at the beginning of 1909 in order to clear the debt and in the evening a religious concert was held to celebrate the occasion with Mr J. Charles McLean from Aberystwyth playing the organ. The following took part – Miss Mary Jones; Miss Anne Prosser, Bow Street; Mr Tom Jones, Dole; Mr J.M. Jones, Efail Fach and Mr E.W. Evans, Tal-y-bont. Mr Williams Rees, Isfryn, was in the Chair.

werthfawr i Mr John James Hughes a'i briod ar achlysur eu priodas. (Y mae'r anrheg hon ym meddiant eu mab Mr Geraint Hughes yn awr). Dyma ychydig o hanes John James Hughes: Yn fab i Mr a Mrs John Hughes ganed ef yn Tŷ Capel ond ar ôl priodi symudodd i dŷ newydd, sef Llys Alaw, ac yno y treuliodd weddill ei oes. Am dros 50 o flynyddoedd yr oedd yn ysgrifennydd y capel ac yn organydd am 60 blwyddyn gan adael ei nod ar ganiadaeth y cysegr a hefyd fel arholwr cerdd o dan goleg y Tonic Solffa. Cyflawnodd oes o waith gwerthfawr. Mynnodd organ bib i'r capel, chwaraeodd hi a gofalodd amdani ar hyd y blynyddoedd. Bu'n aelod o Orsedd y Beirdd am dros hanner canrif a'r enw a roddwyd arno oedd Afaon Alaw.

Ail adeiladwyd y capel yn 1953 pan dynnwyd y pileri wrth y prif ddrysau i lawr.

Peth anghyffredin yw gweld capel â stabl wrtho ond un felly yw Nazareth; y mae tu cefn i'r capel. Yr olaf i 'w ddefnyddio oedd Mr D.R. Jenkins, Erglodd yn nechrau'r 50au. Cofiwn amdano yn dod i'r capel yn ei drap a phoni. Yr oedd Mr Jenkins yn rhoddi pwys mawr ar brydlondeb, ffyddlondeb a chysondeb gyda moddion y tŷ. Roedd ar ben ei hun fel cymeriad a bu fyw a marw heb geisio efelychu neb arall.

1960

Fel gwerthfawrogiad o wasanaeth diflino a ffyddlon Mr R.W. Morgan YH, Maesnewydd fel blaenor a thrysorydd yr eglwys am dros ddeugain mlynedd anrhegwyd ef mewn ffordd ymarferol trwy gyflwyno iddo heilyr arian prydfferth (silver salver). Y mae'n eiddo i'w fab Mr James Hughes Morgan, Maesmawr yn awr.

oak chair to Mr John James Hughes and his wife to mark the occasion of their marriage. (This gift is now in the possession of their son Mr Geraint Hughes). Here are some facts about John James Hughes: he was the son of Mr and Mrs John Hughes and was born in Tŷ Capel. After his marriage he moved to a new house, Llys Alaw, where he spent the rest of his life. He was secretary of the chapel for more than 50 years and an organist for 60 years, making his mark on 'Caniadaeth y Cysegr' and also as a music examiner under the Tonic Solfa college. He gave a lifetime of valuable service. He obtained a pipe organ for the chapel, played it and took care of it over the years. He was a member of the 'Gorsedd y Beirdd' for over half a century and the name given to him was Afaon Alaw.

The chapel was reconstructed in 1953 when the pillars by the main entrance were taken down.

It is unusual to see a stable attached to a chapel but this is true of Nazareth. It is located behind the chapel. The last person to use it was Mr D.R. Jenkins, Erglodd at the beginning of the 1950s. We remember him coming to chapel in his pony and trap. Mr Jenkins placed great emphasis upon punctuality, faithfulness and regularity as far as the services were concerned. He was very much a character and he lived his life true to himself.

1960

As an appreciation of Mr R.W. Morgan JP, Maesnewydd's tireless and faithful service as deacon and treasurer of the chapel for more than forty years, he was presented with a beautiful silver salver. It now belongs to his son Mr James Hughes Morgan, Maesmawr.

Yn frwd iawn derbyniodd y gweinidog, sef y Parch. Tom Roberts a'r aelodau y cyfle i groesawu Cymdeithasfa'r De o Eglwys Bresbyteraidd Cymru ar achlysur ymweliad cyntaf y Gymdeithasfa â Thal-y-bont. Yr oedd hyn yn fenter enfawr i eglwys mor fychan ond bu yn llwyddiant eithriadol a mawr fu y canmol a'r diolch i ddilyn. Cyhoeddiwyd llyfryn o fraslun o hanes yr achos yma gan yr Athro T. Jones Pierce MA a oedd hefyd yn aelod ffyddlon yma; hefyd ei briod a fu'n organyddes ac athrawes Ysgol Sul am nifer o flynyddoedd. Gwnaeth yr Athro hefyd drefnu nifer o deithiau addysgiadol ar hyd a lled Cymru. Dyma lun o'r rhai cyntaf gawsom, trwy law Mr Geraint Jones, Tyncae gynt, a fu'n organydd ac yn aelod gweithgar yma. Hefyd fe fu Miss Eirlys Watkins, Tŷhen Henllys, yn organyddes am lawer o flynyddoedd.

extraordinary success, and it was followed by much praise and gratitude. A booklet giving an outline of the history of this cause was published by Professor Jones Pierce MA who was also a faithful member of the chapel; also his wife who was an organist and Sunday School teacher for many years. The Professor also arranged several educational trips throughout Wales. The following photograph, showing one of the first, was lent by Mr Geraint Jones, formerly of Tyncae, who was an organist and hardworking member here. Miss Eirlys Watkins, Tŷhen Henllys, was also an organist for many years.

Dathlwyd canmlwyddiant y capel ar Dachwedd 28. Y gweinidog ar y pryd oedd y Parch. John Tudno Williams. Cafwyd gwasanaeth llewyrchus iawn a nifer o gyn-aelodau a gwahoddedigion yn bresennol.

Soniwyd yn gynharach am John Williams oedd yn un o sylfaenwyr y capel; hefyd ei fab-yng-nyfraith, John Hughes, a oedd yn un o'r blaenoriaid cyntaf. Mae'n debyg mai ei fab, John James Hughes, a gychwynnodd yr arfer o lafar ganu salmau ymhob gwasanaeth. Erbyn hyn mae ei ddau fab, Geraint a Gareth Hughes, yn flaenoriaid a'u merched hwythau sef Gwenda, Linda a Margaret ymhlith yr organyddion. Y mae'r cysylltiad felly rhwng y teulu hwn a dechreuadau'r capel yn ddidor ac yn ymestyn dros bum cenhedlaeth.

Y mae teulu arall hefyd yn dal cysylltiad

The chapel celebrated its centenary on 28th November. The minister at the time was the Reverend John Tudno Williams. A very successful service was held, with several past members and guests present.

John Williams was referred to earlier as one of the founders of the chapel; also his son-in-law, John Hughes, who was one of the first deacons. It was his son, John James Hughes who began the custom of chanting psalms in every service. By now his two sons Geraint and Gareth Hughes are deacons and their daughters, Gwenda, Linda and Margaret are amongst the organists. The connection, therefore, between this family and the chapel goes back unbroken to its earliest days and stretches over five generations.

Another family, the Maesnewydd family, â'r eglwys o'r dechrau, sef teulu Maesnewydd. Y gŵr a benodwyd gan y fam eglwys Rehoboth i ofalu am yr achos newydd oedd John Davies, Erglodd – un a adwaenid yn ei ddydd fel 'apostol y plant' ar gyfrif ei waith mawr dros yr Ysgol Sul. Priododd ei nith, Mary Jones, a godwyd gyda'i hewythr yn Erglodd, James Morgan, Maesnewydd – aelod gyda'r Annibynwyr yn Nhal-y-bont. Cofnodwyd yn y Drysorfa am 1869 bod Mary Jones wedi anhegu'r eglwys newydd â llestri cymundeb ardderchog a chostus. Ymaelododd James Morgan yn Nasareth ac fe'i etholwyd yn flaenor a bu'n drysorydd yr eglwys hyd 1923. Yna dilynodd ei fab, Richard William Morgan Y.H., ef yn drysorydd ac erbyn heddiw ei fab, James Hughes Morgan, sy'n dal yn y swydd. Erbyn hyn mae ei blant yntau yn dilyn yr un traddodiad. Dyna eto gysylltiad arbennig o faith â'r eglwys hon.

Yn ystod y flwyddyn cawsom gyfle i longyfarch hynafgwr 'ifanc', un o'n has been associated with the chapel from the outset. The man appointed by the mother chapel Rehoboth, to be in charge of the new cause was John Davies, Erglodd, known in his time as the 'children's apostle' because of his work with the Sunday School. His niece, Mary Jones who was brought up by her uncle at Erglodd, married James Morgan, Maesnewydd who was a member with the Independents at Tal-y-bont. It was recorded in the 'Trysorfa' in 1869 that Mary Jones had presented a set of beautiful and expensive communion glasses to the chapel. James Morgan became a member at Nazareth and was elected a deacon; he was treasurer of the chapel until 1923. His son, Richard Williams Morgan JP, followed in his footsteps as treasurer and today his son James Hughes Morgan holds the same position. Now his children follow the tradition. This is another example of a long connection with the chapel.

During the year we had the opportunity to congratulate a 'young' gentleman, one of haelodau, sef Mr J.M. Jenkins, Maesgwyn, ar ei ganfed penblwydd. Cafodd rodd gan yr aelodau o rai o gylchgronnau Cymdeithas Hynafiaethwyr Ceredigion. Bu farw ar Fedi'r ail 1978 yn 102 mlwydd oed. Cadwodd ei ddiddordeb yn y capel hyd y diwedd a mynychau'r cyfarfodydd. Yr oedd y Parch. Roberts yn briod â'i ferch Gwen. Bu iddynt briodi yn Nasareth yn 1958.

Cafwyd yr ail sasiwn yma. Yr oedd hon eto yn un i'w chofio.

They were married in Nazareth in 1958.

Neuadd gan y chwirydd yn ddihareb erbyn hyn.

Rhaid llongyfarch yn galonnog iawn un y mae Nasareth yn ddyledus iddo am ei wasanaeth a'i haelioni iddi ar hyd y blynyddoedd sef, Mr Caledfryn Evans YH ar dderbyn ohono yn haeddiannol iawn y Fedal Gee yn 1984 am ei wasanaeth i'r Ysgol Sul. Bu ef a'i briod yn byw yn Tŷ Capel am gyfnod a mawr fu eu gofal am bopeth. Pan oedd yn 90 oed cafwyd parti yn y capel i ddathlu'r achlysur a chyflwynwyd ffon yn anrheg iddo.

1987

Er mwyn codi arian at yr adeiladau trefnwyd taith gerdded o Aberystwyth i Dal-y-bont – rhan o daith Gerallt Gymro a drefnwyd gan y Western Mail. Casglwyd £750.

1989

Bu gwasanaeth a pharti yn y capel i ddathlu 40 o flynyddoedd y bu Gareth Hughes yn ysgrifennydd. Cyflwynwyd anrheg o faromedr iddo. Y mae'n parhau gyda'r gwaith yn 1999. Felly mae wedi bod yn y swydd am dros 50 o flynyddoedd.

Daeth amser i ni ffarwelio â Mr a Mrs Dafydd Jones (Yr Urdd) o'u gwasanaeth fel and Nia Evans. The welcome given and the food provided in the Hall by the women is by now proverbial.

One must heartily congratulate someone that Nazareth is indebted to for his service and his generosity over the years – Mr Caledfryn Evans JP, who deservedly received the Gee Medal in 1984 for his service to the Sunday school. He and his wife lived in the Chapel House for a time and took great care of everything. When he was 90 years old a party was held in the chapel to celebrate the occasion and he received a walking stick as a gift.

In order to raise money towards the buildings a sponsored walk was held from Aberystwyth to Tal-y-bont, part of the journey made by Gerald the Welshman, and organised by the Western Mail. A sum of £750 was collected.

1989

A service and party was held in the chapel to celebrate Gareth Hughes' 40 years as secretary. He was presented with a barometer. He continues to do the work in 1999. He has therefore held the post for over 50 years.

The time came to say farewell to Mr and Mrs Dafydd Jones (The Urdd) for their gofalwyr y capel. Yr oeddent wedi rhoi blynyddoedd o wasanaeth diwyd i ni.

Un a fu'n weithgar iawn gyda'r plant ar hyd yr amser oedd Mrs Myfanwy Jones – hi oedd yn trefnu ac yn paratoi'r plant – gyda chymorth yr athrawon – gogyfer â'r gwahanol wasanaethau gyda'r Ysgol Sul a'r capel ac yr oeddent bob amser yn llewyrchus.

service as chapel caretakers. They had given years of unstinting service.

Mrs Myfanwy Jones is one who has worked diligently with the children over the years; she organised and prepared the children, assisted by the teachers, for the various services of the Sunday School and chapel and they were always of a high standard.
